The Boy Inside the Man     Tom Cochrane/Red Rider

G5
                                                  So long, so long,

G5                   Gsus    G5                          Gsus       G5
so long he's been away, so long,  so long, so long he's back again, when I turned 17        we had passion, we had dreams      thought the love we were

G5

Dsus                          D        G fighting for   was something holy, something more.        When I turned

G 21,               we were outside on the run       when I walked out with

Dsus                          D        G
my girl,    Ha!  we were halfway round the world  [rpt]    and  I,  I

D                                    G
dreamed that I      saw her standing there                running for the

D                                    G
 boy    inside the  man                                I was

D                                    G              Em hit hard by a light so bright it      burned     and     all at once I

Em              C
knew she'd    understand       understand     understand

Gsus              G
  Boy inside the    man                                Boy inside the man...

G                         G
                  When I turned    25                      we were hungry,

G                                   Dsus                      D
we had drive    Then I turned much older then    ah, 'cause the boy was lost

G                                     G in pride         Now I've just turned 31          and I have lost and I have

G                                 Dsus                      D
won       still I've kept my dreams alive      'cause the boy will never

G                                        D
  die                          and I dreamed that I saw her standing

G                             D
there            running for the  boy      inside the   man

G                             D
                    I was      hit hard by a light so bright it

G               Em              Em                    C burned          and all at once I knew she'd understand

C                                 Gsus            G
                                     the boy inside the man

G                                 Gsus                 G
                   the boy inside the man!

G                                 Gsus            G
             ah, do you understand??!!!           [instrumental]
